

Chahab Natar

Chief Innovation Officer

Dr. Chahab Natar has over 20 years of experience as an academic, an entrepreneur, and a large company executive.

After heading up a research team at INRIA, he founded the computer vision software maker LTU technologies and successfully sold it to Jastec Corporation, a listed company based in Tokyo. He then spent seven years at SAP as Vice President of Advanced Development, before joining EIT Digital in 2014.

Chahab graduated from Ecole des Ponts ParisTech. He has a PhD in Artificial Intelligence and is a former fellow of the MIT Media Lab. In 2002, he was recognized by Technology Review magazine as one of the world's top young innovators.

EIT Digital

We believe in making and shaping a competitive digital Europe that is inclusive, fair and sustainable and aim at global impact through European innovation fueled by entrepreneurial talent and digital technology.

We embody the future of innovation by mobilizing a pan-European multi-stakeholder open-innovation ecosystem of top European corporations, SMEs, startups, universities and research institutes, where students, researchers, engineers, business developers and investors address the technology, talent, skills, business and capital needs of digital entrepreneurship.

We build the next generation of digital ventures, digital products and services, and breed digital entrepreneurial talent, helping business and entrepreneurs to be at the frontier of digital innovation by providing them with technology, talent, and growth support.
