Invitation to Results Day

EIT ICT Labs Helsinki

Wednesday, 9 October 2013

Welcome to the Results Day where EIT ICT Labs Helsinki showcases innovations, start-ups and activities in the areas of Smart Spaces, Health & Wellbeing, Cloud Computing, Future Networking Solutions as well as our Master and Doctoral Schools.

Professor Alexander Manu, a provocative author, speaker and leading practitioner in the field of strategic foresight, surveys in his keynote the changing context for innovation, and explores a few questions that will help organisations identify and validate ideas, transforming them into platforms for engagement and participation, or what he calls "a new behaviour space".
